

The people of the country are counting on the FCC to serve the public interest and allow access and competition. Please do not reinforce the perception that the government and current administration are at the beck and call of large industry and the established powers in media. We are counting on you.